From Internships To PPOs

Our students have interned alongside top brands, startups, consulting firms, banks, VC funds, and tech companies.

What began as an industry exposure progressed into Pre-Placement Offers through execution, results, and performance.

CTC Distribution

PPO conversions continue through the year as our third-year students progress through their internships and evaluations conclude, with additional offers rolling out in phases. These conversions are driven by performance, role readiness, and ongoing evaluation cycles.

"Looking forward to work at the intersection of strategy and operations, understand how decisions translate into execution, and contribute to building systems that scale with growth."

Aniket Bisen

Strategy & Ops. Executive,
Scaler

"I am quite excited to work on growth initiatives, understand how audiences are built and retained, and contribute to data-driven decisions across digital products."

Nikita Yadav

Growth Executive,
Times Internet

"I am very curious about how decisions travel from the founder's desk to execution, and keen to help turn priorities into outcomes across teams."

Manan Singh Baweja

Founder's Office,
Shiprocket

"I am keen to learn at the intersection of risk, data, and judgment, evaluating venture debt investments that back some of the most ambitious, high-growth companies. My role focuses on how disciplined risk assessment, deep financial analysis, and real-world decision-making converge to drive lending outcomes in fast-moving venture ecosystems."

Shivangi Duttaupadhyay

Risk & Investments Analyst,
Stride Ventures

"I am fascinated and keen to learn how categories are built end-to-end, from understanding consumer behaviour to shaping product and pricing decisions at scale."

Arnav Adhlakha

Category Manager,
Wakefit
